

Assignment 1

CENG 355

Write a routine using the instructions `AD A,B,C` and `BN a,B` of the very simple computer discussed in class that attempts to calculate the difference, $X - Y$, between 2 8-bit 2's complement numbers.

Your routine should first use a loop to calculate the logical complement of Y .

Your routine should set a flag if the difference is not correct.